

Postdoc Academy

The Postdoc Academy:

A Digital Professional Development Program for Postdocs

Sarah Chobot Hokanson, Bennett Goldberg, Henry (Rique) Campa III, Olivia Chesniak, Denise Drane, Noah Green, Robin Greenler, Jessica Maher, Rick McGee, Antonio Nunez, and Celine Young

The goal of the Postdoc Academy is to build a supportive, inclusive community for postdocs on their journey to success. Our program provides flexible professional development: postdocs nationwide can participate entirely online and asynchronously, or join a blended (online with in-person meetings) learning community.

- And more..

To ensure the evidence-based content is relevant and engaging for postdocs of all stages and disciplines, our team has implemented an iterative feedback process. We have conducted 13 virtual focus groups with 82 postdocs, obtaining extensive and meaningful feedback. Multiple opportunities to reflect and incorporate feedback have allowed our module teams to support greater co-creation and revisions towards improvement.
